

Beyond Europe: Further Fronts, Other Stories

Sunday, June 25 12 – 4 pm

DON'T MISS.....

The Scottish Women's Hospital in Serbia 1914 - 1919

1.00pm

Despite being told to 'Go home and sit still' by the British Army, The Scottish Women's Hospital provided much needed medical assistance for Allied troops abroad. Join historian, Alan Cummings as he tells of the hospital's vital role in Serbia.

The Overseas Labour Corp

2.00pm

Labour Corps were an essential part of the international war effort, providing much needed support work and manual labour. Join Louse Bell of the National Archives to delve into the documents that reveal the fascinating stories of some of the men who served.

Further Fronts, Other Stories

12:30, 1.30, 2.30 & 3.30pm

Join Sam Rowe of the Village Storytelling Centre and find out more about life in the African Labour Corp, being under siege at Kut-al-Amara and who was the real Lawrence of Arabia?

Away from the Western Front

All day

Join living history group Scots in the Great War to find out more about life in theaters of war away from the Western Front from Gallipoli to Salonika.

A War with a global Reach

All day

An exhibition of film and images looking at the global reach of the war.

ALL DAY!