

Animal Mascots

Animals were given jobs to do during WWI, but they were also kept as mascots to raise soldiers' morale. These could be working animals, such as horses or dogs, but sometimes they were wild animals that soldiers had rescued or adopted, like tortoises or foxes.

What animal would you choose as a mascot?

Draw your mascot on this page!

What is your mascot's name?

How did it become your mascot?

What job did it do?

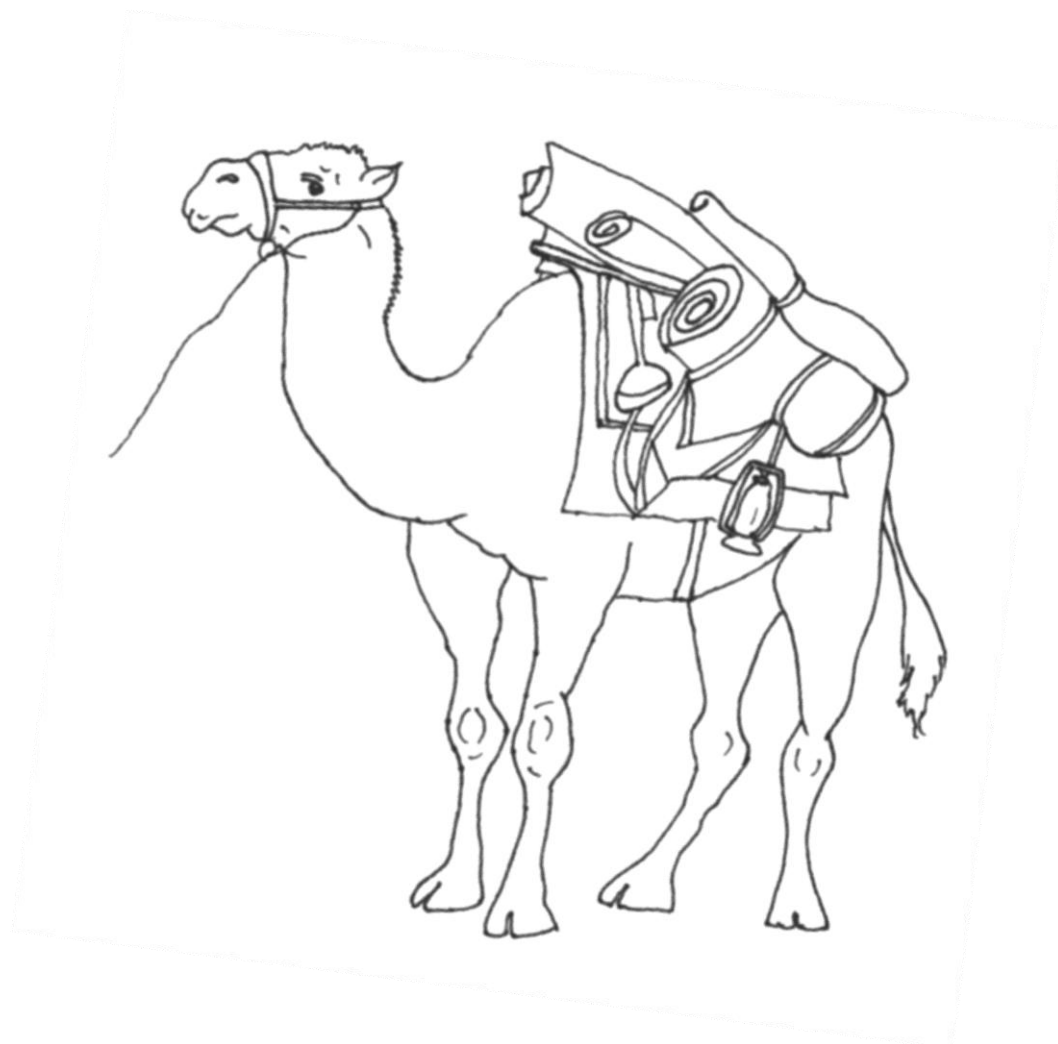

How do you think your mascot felt being at war?

Animal Mascots

Animals were given jobs to do during WWI, but they were also kept as mascots to raise soldiers' morale. These could be working animals, such as horses or dogs, but sometimes they were wild animals that soldiers had rescued or adopted, like tortoises or foxes.

What animal would you choose as a mascot?

Colour in your mascot!

What is your mascot's name?

How did it become your mascot?

What job did it do?

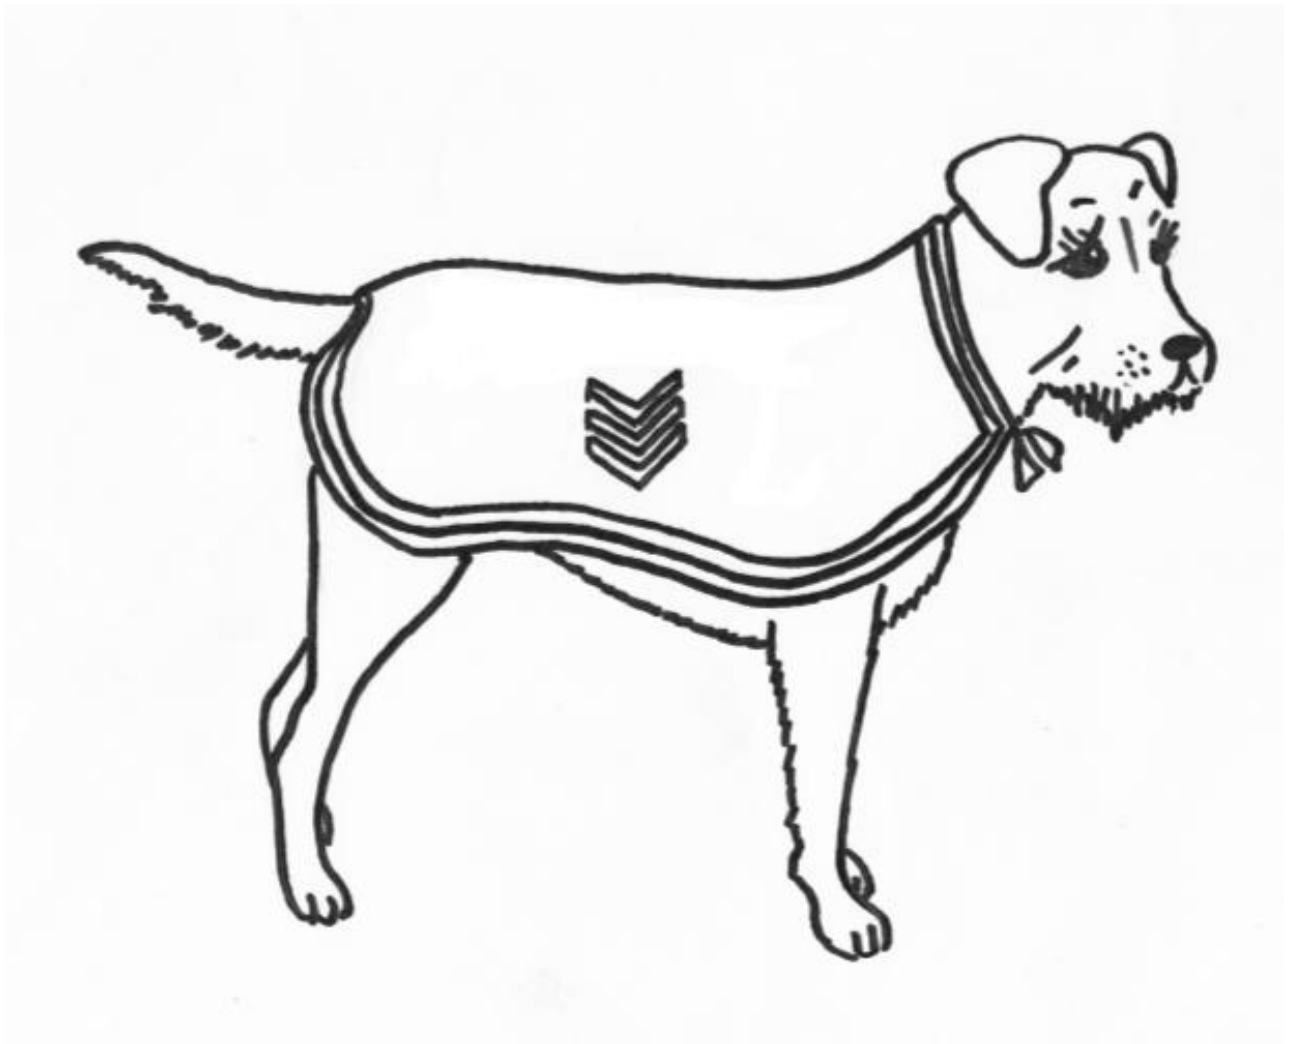

How do you think your mascot felt being at war?

Animal Mascots

Animals were given jobs to do during WWI, but they were also kept as mascots to raise soldiers' morale. These could be working animals, such as horses or dogs, but sometimes they were wild animals that soldiers had rescued or adopted, like tortoises or foxes.

What animal would you choose as a mascot?

Colour in your mascot!

What is your mascot's name?

How did it become your mascot?

What job did it do?

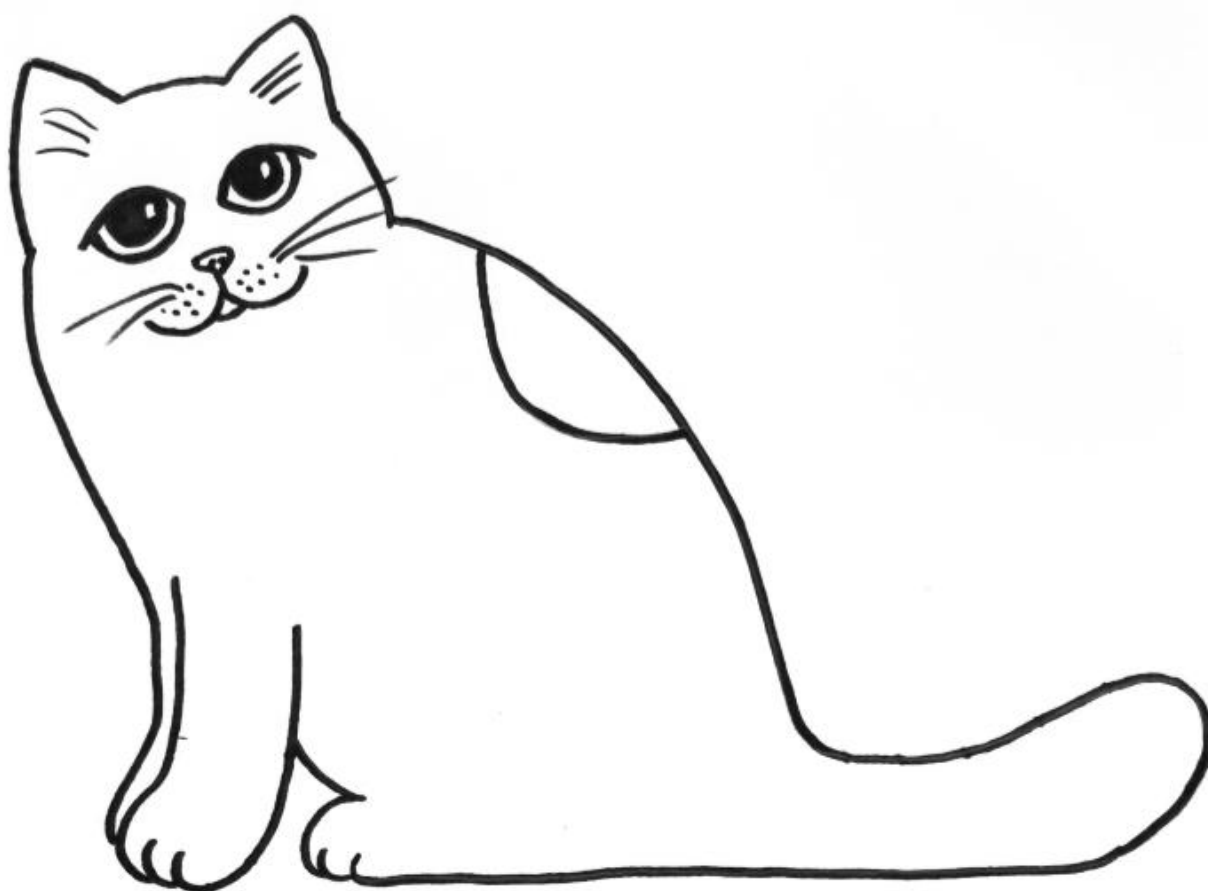

How do you think your mascot felt being at war?

Animal Mascots

Animals were given jobs to do during WWI, but they were also kept as mascots to raise soldiers' morale. These could be working animals, such as horses or dogs, but sometimes they were wild animals that soldiers had rescued or adopted, like tortoises or foxes.

What animal would you choose as a mascot?

Colour in your mascot!

What is your mascot's name?

How did it become your mascot?

What job did it do?

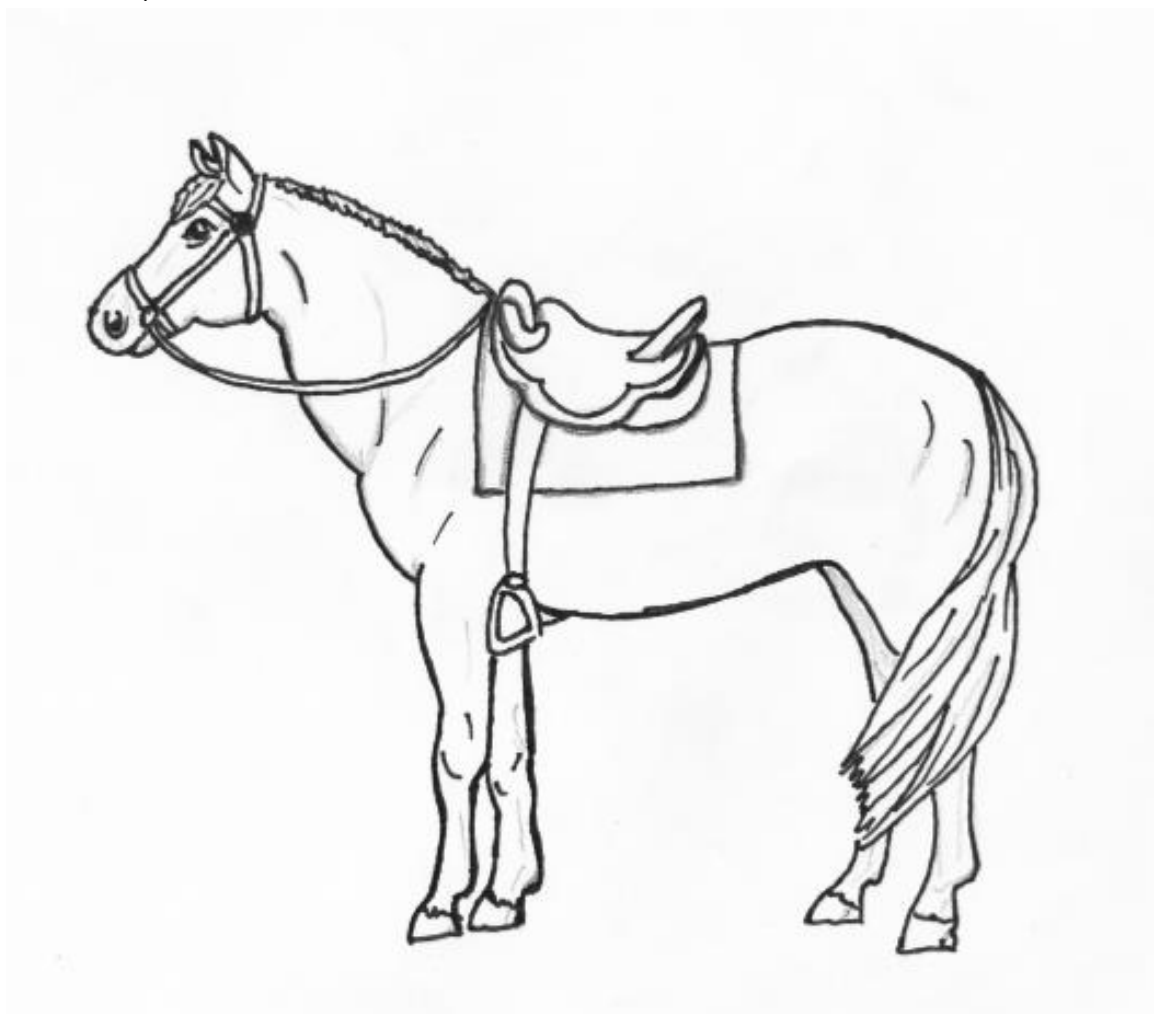

How do you think your mascot felt being at war?

Animal Mascots

Animals were given jobs to do during WWI, but they were also kept as mascots to raise soldiers' morale. These could be working animals, such as horses or dogs, but sometimes they were wild animals that soldiers had rescued or adopted, like tortoises or foxes.

What animal would you choose as a mascot?

Colour in your mascot!

What is your mascot's name?

How did it become your mascot?

What job did it do?

How do you think your mascot felt being at war?